Samantha's Nightmare

One night, Samantha fell asleep and began to dream. In her dream, she was standing at the gates of a beautiful and magical school. The school was very big, with tall towers that seemed to touch the sky. Samantha felt excited and happy as she walked through the gates.

At first, the school looked wonderful. But as Samantha walked inside, she started to feel strange. The halls were very quiet. She could only hear the sound of her own footsteps. The air felt cold, and a heavy feeling grew in her stomach.

Suddenly, she heard a whisper coming from one classroom. The sound made her heart beat faster. She slowly opened the door and looked inside.

In the corner of the room, there was a dark figure. Its back was facing her. Samantha called out softly, but then the figure turned around. Its face was twisted with anger, and its mouth was full of sharp teeth. Its eyes looked hungry and frightening.

Samantha screamed as the figure jumped toward her. In that moment, she woke up. She was in her own bed, covered in cold sweat. Her heart was still beating fast.

It was only a dream, but Samantha was very scared. She told herself she would never forget that terrible nightmare.
